

RAVES FROM PRESENTERS FOR THE QUEEN'S SIX

"The Queen's Six concert was fabulous and we had a great turn out. All of the audience were extremely impressed and astonished by their superb performance. Given the time of travels, fatigue and performing with a new singer, it was very professional. Many said it was just a perfect concert and wished them to come here again!"

Gratefully,
Seung-Won Cho, Music Director, First United Methodist Church Vesper Concert Series, Lubbock, TX

"They. Were. Phenomenal!
Thank you Lisa. More on this later, we'll get the reviews soon."

—T.J. Armand, Executive Director, Bermuda Festival

"They were fabulous and beyond words. Their interaction with the children was the talk of the town to say the least. Then the evening performance — folks were saying they could've stayed all night!
When are they coming back?"

—Molly Fortune, Newberry, SC Opera House

"Hello Simon,

Please pass along my sincerest gratitude for your wonderful workshop and concert yesterday evening. The Chapel Choir was thrilled to have worked with you, and although they expected a high level of knowledge of the music we were singing, they were particularly impressed with your group's ability to communicate that knowledge in a fun and engaging way. This was a truly unforgettable experience for them, and I'm confident your teaching will stick with them permanently.

The concert was also perhaps the only one I've attended in recent memory where my attention didn't trail off even once (a real feat for me!). This was due to your excellent musicianship, interesting and varied repertoire, and engaging presentation. It's no wonder you're in such demand!"

—Christopher Dekker, DMA, Director of Choral Activities, Hope College

"A tremendous 'thank you' to you for bringing The Queen's Six to our community! Our community was just blown away by their music-making. Everything about the event was wonderful - to hear them share their extraordinary music-making with the Silicon Valley community, to have them work so closely in and in such detail with the singers of our Convivium choir, and of course, the opportunity to meet them."

—Eric Tuan, Director of Music, Christ Episcopal Church, Los Altos, CA

"Lisa –

I wanted to share with you how delighted we were to host The Queen's Six on April 6, 2018. This extremely talented group of singers were beyond wonderful and their exquisite tones soared in every way from their amazing blend to their shining personalities on and off stage. The masterclass at Arvada West was a high-caliber and enriching opportunity for the students and one that undoubtedly changed lives and brought an exceptional music experience. Simon and the others were super-easy to work with and they were not only fun, but also amicable with the dinner we served and the special guests we invited. I can't speak highly enough about The Queen's Six and would definitely welcome them back to Denver and the Augustana Arts' season platform in the future.

— Lynn Nestingen, PhD, Executive Director, Augustana Arts, Denver

"They were magnificent. Truly amazing, and we'd love to have them back! They made a great impression on me and all the patrons. Thank you so much for them!!!

It was truly a pleasure working with these guys. They were phenomenal."

—Kyle Ramey / Trinity Episcopal Church, Watertown, NY

"Lisa, everything was just great. Wonderful folks to work with, fine musicians, good programming. The audience was very enthusiastic. Thanks for all your help."

—Wayne Wold, Hood College, Frederick, MD

"Hi Lisa,

We loved them! The full-house audience truly enjoyed their music and their amusing banter. We sold all but 6 cd's.

I was most impressed by how sweet and personable they all were. They were exquisite dinner guests, and they were all so positive and professional.

There was an ice storm on the day of the concert, which caused a flat tire on one of the cars that were transporting them. One of the guys actually sprang into action and changed the tire. Amazing!

It was a delightful experience hosting the Queen's Six! This concert will be remembered for some time!"

—Chuck Grosz, Early Music Now, Milwaukee

Hi Lisa,

"Everything went extremely well today! The Queen's Six are outstanding musicians and really nice and generous guys. We had a wonderful brunch for them and a small circle of our friends and patrons at our patrons' house in the morning. The weather was superb, the setting was lovely, and City and State officials showed up to welcome the singers to Texas. The outreach at Texas A&M University went very well; the guys had a workshop with the Century Singers, one of the University's choir groups. Singing Cadets, Women's Choir, and choir groups from A&M Consolidated High School and Rudder HS attended. The students got really inspired and enthusiastic; lots of pictures were taken after the event.

The concert was remarkable! The group demonstrated their perfect conduct of the Baroque polyphony and then, a whimsical and playful side of their outstanding musicianship in the arrangements in the second part of the program. There were more than 300 people in the audience.

Many thanks for your help, Lisa!"
